Week 1 of the 1999 HSC

Anna: The first exam is very scary.

Rebecca: The lining up and waiting to be called is nerve wracking,

Gloria: The pressure builds.

Anna: Writing your candidate number helps you calm down, because you know that. It's reassuring.

Rebecca: Then the supervisors remind you that you can't bring any materials or notes into the exam, or you risk disqualification. I actually checked my dress. I thought, 'what if a post-it note accidentally got stuck on my skirt.'

Gloria: You begin reading the words but they're not going in. So you tell your self to calm down, concentrate and once you get pen to paper you're right.

Rebecca: The end of the first paper feels like a mini triumph.

Gloria: Afterwards you want to talk with friends. It feels great to hear your answers generally agreed upon.

Anna: Then you can go home and pack away every thing for that subject.

Gloria: No more quotes!

Rebecca: The HSC? I see it as the end of a major thirteen-year chapter.

Gloria: I see this as finishing a stage. I am already looking towards the next stage.

Anna: Hot tips? If you get to a question you're not confident about, you say to your subconscious, 'You better sort this out, because when I get back to this question I'm going to expect an answer!'

Gloria: The best advice was from Mr Papadopoulos 'Don't study for examinations. Study!'

Rebecca: Start early, work all the way through, then you feel you can manage.
